RG104 E-1 Box 177

ROBERT J. HOGUET,
9, 11 & 13 Mercer Street.

NEW YORK, July 27th, 1892.

Colonel Bosbyshell,

U.S.Mint, Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:-

Would it be possible to make a third medal of the same design as the others, but quite small not to exceed an inch and a half, or at most 2 inches, to have on it an attachment to hang on the coat or pierced so that a ribbon could be run through it.

Yours respectfully,

Robert J. Hoguet

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 177

Robert J. Hoguet,
New York,
July 27, 1892

Colonel Bosbyshell,
U.S. Mint, Philadelphia.

Dear Sir: -

Would it be possible to make a third medal of the same design as the others, but quite small not to exceed an inch and a half, or at most 2 inches, to have on it an attachment to hand on the coat or pierced so that a ribbon could be run through it.

Yours respectfully,
Robert J. Hoguet